Introduction

Our Story

Roadcraft is a not-for-profit Incorporated Association committed to preventing road trauma by providing effective road safety education to road users of all ages.

Since 1979, when we were established by Rotary, Apex and the community, we have seen thousands of drivers in our courses and helped them to understand the principles of safer driving and apply that knowledge practically on the road.

Our Team

Everyone at Roadcraft is a valued team member, and some of them have been around for over eleven years.

We should never accept the injustice of being expected to rely on luck alone to stay safe, and that road trauma is a price to pay for being a road user. Effective education is the key to reducing road trauma and that is what we're so passionate about at Roadcraft. Together, we can make a difference.

Your Future

A career with Roadcraft means giving people the techniques and knowledge to be safer while driving and reducing road trauma and fatalities all while developing your professional skills and pursuing excellence.

Values & Mission

Our Why

At Roadcraft, every minute of every day is dedicated to road safety; we're committed to ensuring every course participant leaves our facility with complete clarity around what choices to make and what behaviours to act out behind the wheel, to do their bit to make our roads safer.

1,123 People died
on Australian roads in 2021

We believe that deaths like these can be avoided through the delivery of effective education of safe, low risk driving techniques.

You shouldn't have to rely on luck to stay safe, and road trauma isn't simply a price we must pay for being a road user.

How can you help?

When you join Roadcraft, you're joining a team of passionate individuals who recognise the toll road trauma takes, the future we can create with education, and the pathway to that safer future.

You can be a part of building a safer future - learning techniques and strategies to drive more safely, and passing that knowledge on to the community in an effective and safe environment.
